

"Accident." Their log house, built about 1800, is the oldest residence in this county; it is now the property of Adam J. Richter.

THE DRANE HOUSE

Accident became a German settlement, composed of Pennsylvania "Dutch" families, including Hinebaughs, Speichers and Johnathan Frantz in The Cove, and immigrants from Germany in the 1840's-50's; Englehart, Miller, Richter, Spoerline, Gehringer, Georg, Fratz and others.

Bittinger was settled by Henry Bedinger, ancestor of the numerous Bittinger family of this county. In 1814 he purchased, for $200, four Military Lots of Benjamin Duvall, heir of his brother, Lieut. Isaac Duvall, who died in service during the Revolution. Holmes Wiley, the hunter, John Beachy and Peter Lohr also settled in this neighborhood.

Sang Run was the settlement of John Friend, Jr., (1764-1849) in 1795, on part of "Friend's Delight" at the mouth of Ginseng Run. Other early settlers were: William W. Hoyer, Henry DeWitt, Andrew House, Henry Sines, J. Enlow, Henry McCabe, John, and Dominick Mattingly.

"Accident." Their log house, built about 1800, is the oldest residence in this county; it is now the property of Adam J. Richter.

THE DRANE HOUSE

Accident became a German settlement, composed of Pennsylvania "Dutch" families, including Hinebaughs, Speichers and Johnathan Frantz in The Cove, and immigrants from Germany in the 1840's-50's; Englehart, Miller, Richter, Spoerline, Gehringer, Georg, Fratz and others.

Bittinger was settled by Henry Bedinger, ancestor of the numerous Bittinger family of this county. In 1814 he purchased, for $200, four Military Lots of Benjamin Duvall, heir of his brother, Lieut. Isaac Duvall, who died in service during the Revolution. Holmes Wiley, the hunter, John Beachy and Peter Lohr also settled in this neighborhood.

Sang Run was the settlement of John Friend, Jr., (1764-1849) in 1795, on part of "Friend's Delight" at the mouth of Ginseng Run. Other early settlers were: William W. Hoyer, Henry DeWitt, Andrew House, Henry Sines, J. Enlow, Henry McCabe, John, and Dominick Mattingly.

"Accident." Their log house, built about 1800, is the oldest residence in this county; it is now the property of Adam J. Richter.

THE DRANE HOUSE

Accident became a German settlement, composed of Pennsylvania "Dutch" families, including Hinebaughs, Speichers and Johnathan Frantz in The Cove, and immigrants from Germany in the 1840's-50's; Englehart, Miller, Richter, Spoerline, Gehringer, Georg, Fratz and others.

Bittinger was settled by Henry Bedinger, ancestor of the numerous Bittinger family of this county. In 1814 he purchased, for $200, four Military Lots of Benjamin Duvall, heir of his brother, Lieut. Isaac Duvall, who died in service during the Revolution. Holmes Wiley, the hunter, John Beachy and Peter Lohr also settled in this neighborhood.

Sang Run was the settlement of John Friend, Jr., (1764-1849) in 1795, on part of "Friend's Delight" at the mouth of Ginseng Run. Other early settlers were: William W. Hoyer, Henry DeWitt, Andrew House, Henry Sines, J. Enlow, Henry McCabe, John, and Dominick Mattingly.